

WORLD'S SOLDIERS AT SPARTANBURG TO HAVE A DINNER

A Nutritious Diet for All Ages.

Spurred by The Evening World,
SPARTANBURG, R. C. Star, Mr.
Reginald Foster of the 12th

Infantry is arranging for a special dinner and evening of the formation of the New York Guard now in Camp Wadsworth. There are about forty thousand men in camp now, and the dinner promises to be a great event. Our Power will today be honored to have several of the former guard of The World, who are still in New York, here for the occasion.

A platoon dinner team from Company K, 10th Infantry, left yesterday afternoon for their home town, Bronx, N. Y., where they will play a game from their own gallantry. They will reach Bronx tonight, where a royal welcome awaits them. The party consisted of Louis Blaize and the following enlisted men: Colson, Coney, Newman, Gipp, Hartnett, Glazebrook, Schlesinger, Tatton, Horan, Prang, Carlson and Ross. The party of the New York Guard offered to pay all the expenses of the men on the trip and to give them the entire gate receipts of the game for the benefit of the company mess fund.

J. F. Murphy has been appointed Y. M. C. A. physical director for Camp Wadsworth to succeed W. J. Devine, recently recalled to New York for service elsewhere. Mr. Jenny came to Camp Wadsworth from New York the latter part of August and has been in charge of an outfit in Y. M. C. A. Unit No. 26 ever since. He is a popular and energetic man, and everybody is pleased with his appointment.

Athletic circles in Camp Wadsworth are much interested in a road run to be put on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the 10th Engineers. The race will be run entirely within the camp, and will cover a distance of four miles. It will start at 2:30 o'clock and the start and finish will be in front of the Engineers' camp. Prizes will be offered for the first three men to finish and it is expected that there will be a large number of contestants.

Several hundred New Yorkers arrived here yesterday on a visit to friends and relatives in camp. Their coming was unheralded for the most part and they had little time getting accommodations. The hotel capacity of the city is limited at best and an unexpected influx of several hundred persons in one day is a severe tax on accommodations.

Leon Rothier in the Columbia Shop

The principal French bass of the Metropolitan Opera, whose singing of the Marseillaise thrilled Marshal Joffre, makes records exclusively for Columbia. He returned recently from a year's service in the trenches before Verdun.

On a busy corner of New York's most famous shopping thoroughfare, there is a quaint bit of Old England hidden behind a conventional shop front.

As you enter, you realize you have come to a shop different from any other you ever visited—different and more interesting in its distinctive beauty and charming hospitality. Interior decorators will tell you it is a perfect example of the Tudor period. Music lovers say it is the pleasantest place they know to hear new music. Furniture collectors find here Grafonolas in all artistic periods. Opera goers meet here famous artists who sing exclusively for Columbia.

The Columbia Shop has Grafonolas from $18 to $250; period designs up to $2100. Convenient terms may be arranged around $5 a month for standard Grafonolas and at $10 a month for period designs.
